CLASSIC WINES FROM FINE WINE REGIONS

WHITE WINES

FRANCE

Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Louis Latour 2003

£49

(Chardonnay) 13.5% ABV

Traditional oak vinification yields a full-flavoured yet graceful wine of exceptional balance and breed, with complex, distinctive aromas typical of Puligny. The bouquet has notes of almonds and minerals, which are repeated on the palate in the long finish

Meursault 1er Cru 'Les Charmes' Domaine Rene Monnier 2006

£69

(Chardonnay) 13.5% ABV

Light gold in colour, this wine shows beautiful integration of oak with rich, elegantly styled fruit through to a wonderful long and well sustained finish

RED WINES

FRANCE

Corton Grand Cru Domaine Latour 1998

£44

(Pinot Noir) 14% ABV

Ruby red with a bouquet of ripe red fruits and spicy notes. A very lengthy wine on the palate, highly recommended

Chateau Kirwan Grand Cru Classe Margaux 2004

£59

(Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot) 13% ABV

Sweet, ripe, cherry-pie nose, blackberries and background oak flavours. This wine is opulent, juicy, masses of fruit, and very concentrated with fine smooth tannins and good length

Chateauneuf-du-Pape Cuvee du Papet Clos du Mont Olivet 2005

£69

(Grenache blend) 14.5% ABV

Stunningly fragrant bouquet of fresh red berries, cherry, minerals, Asian spices and fresh flowers. Deeply concentrated raspberry and cherry flavors with some anise and cinnamon and floral pastille, with big but interwoven tannins - classic

Chateau Gazin Pomerol 2004

£79

(Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot) 13% ABV

Plum fruits with notes of toffee, cream and vanilla on the nose, there is fatly textured fruit on the palate which is ripe, soft and round, with really nice length. (Rated 90 by Robert Parker)

ITALY

Barolo Bussia, Poderi Colla Piemonte 2004

£49.50

(Nebbiolo) 14% ABV

Huge, brooding aromas of scorched earth, spices and tobacco lead to rich, complex layers of dried figs, plums and prunes that gradually open on the palate. This impressively endowed, exciting Barolo closes with a long, sweet finish
